

1995 Paper 12 Question 10

Topics in Artificial Intelligence

Using appropriate mathematical expressions, define the following operations commonly used in computer vision and briefly explain their function and applications:

- (a) convolution
- (b) correlation
- (c) bandpass filtering
- (d) edge detection by derivative zero-crossings
- (e) invariant transform

[20 marks]