

1993 Paper 10 Question 9

Graphics I

RasterOp is the name given to an operation which generates, from a number of rasters of pixel values, another raster of pixel values.

Describe suitable versions that could be used

(a) to move a window on screen while preserving background [12 marks]

(b) to blend two images in proportions given by a mask [8 marks]