

The Anatomy of a GeekGirl Meetup

We are the GeekGirls.

A group of passionate women working in tech, design, innovation and start-ups.
We like to meetup.

We Meetup

We organise meetups about every six weeks in London and Milton Keynes. They're an opportunity to meet fellow Geek Girls.

Every time we have awesome women sharing their inspirational stories, expertise and advice on how to succeed in tech, innovation, design and startups.

We Blog

We write and we like it when you ladies write for us too. Inspiring stories, event write ups, highs and lows anything you would like to share with the rest of the Geek Girls.

We're always looking for new content, so get in touch.

We Speak

Our ambition is to get more women on to the stage to share their knowledge! We talk regularly at events and in order to encourage others to do so, provide a list of all the great women talking in the industry.

If you're looking for a female speaker, step into our office.

We have worked with some amazing sponsors...

There are many people who have supported and helped us to build Geek Girl Meetup into what it is today. We have regular sponsors that we think are the bees knees. Not in a sucky uppy way, in a you - should really check these people out kinda way.

Want to support our initiative? Got a cool space for a meetup? Want to brand some merch? We would love to work with you! Get in touch and share the love.

What is GGM?

GeekGirl Meetup is a network, for and by, women and girls interested in all things tech, design, innovation and startups.

Our ambition is to highlight female role models in the industry, create networks for knowledge exchange, mentoring and sharing ideas – and of course, to have fun!

How it all started

GeekGirl Meetup was founded in Sweden in 2008 by Heidi Harman and Andie Nordgren. In London it was set up in 2011 by Heidi Harman, Josefine Hedlund and Emily Green. Since 2013 the London core team has been Davina Pancholi, Robyn Exton, Josefine Hedlund and Magdalena Kron.

Networks of GGM already exist in four Swedish cities as well as in Milton Keynes, Denmark, Mexico, Berlin, Singapore and Hong Kong.

You will leave with a feeling of wanting more.
We become each others role models.

Help us create a community the reminds women what they are good at and inspire individuals to always learn more.

That is what a GeekGirl Meetup is all about.
