

1993 Paper 13 Question 7

Artificial Intelligence II

Discuss any two methods for computing information about the three-dimensional layout of surfaces in a scene, given one or more images of the scene. Illustrate your answer with appropriate mathematical relationships and fragments of computer programs. [20 marks]