2000 Paper 11 Question 5

Data Structures and Algorithms

Describe in detail both Prim's and Kruskal's algorithms for finding a minimum cost spanning tree of an undirected graph with edges labelled with positive costs, and explain why they are correct.   [7 marks each]

Compare the relative merits of the two algorithms.   [6 marks]