

Q1. Favourite course

Bioinformatics: Draws together other modules, such as machine learning, but builds on it and is more applied than some of the other modules; has application. You can tell that the lecturer really loves what he's doing, especially compared to courses where it is not what the lecturer works in.