

Are you about to lose your rights?

You will soon be asked to vote on Cambridge University's new Intellectual Property policy.

You can vote for either:

- A proposal from the Council which removes many of your traditional rights or
- an amended policy which protects your rights while giving the University a fair deal

For further information, visit the website of the Campaign for Cambridge Freedoms:

www.freecambridge.org